Introduction to FlexElect

The State of California's FlexElect program offers two types of employee benefits:

- ✓ reimbursement accounts, and
- ✓ cash options.

You may enroll in either benefit, or both. This handbook explains both benefits for the 2005 plan year (January 1-December 31, 2005). Please read it carefully before you make an enrollment decision to be sure you understand the program requirements, including any changes that may have occurred since you received the last handbook.

FlexElect is governed by federal IRS rules (based on Internal Revenue Code Section 125), which can change at any time. If there is any discrepancy between the information in this handbook and IRS rules, the IRS rules supercede this handbook.

Open Enrollment Period: Sept. 15 – Oct. 15, 2004

If you enroll in a reimbursement account and/or cash option during this year's open enrollment period, your enrollment choices take effect January 1, 2005.

- ✓ Reimbursement accounts: Payroll deductions begin with your paycheck for the December 2004 pay period and continue through the November 2005 pay period. You must re-enroll each year during open enrollment if you want to participate again the following year.
- ✓ Cash Options: Cash options automatically continue from year to year (except for permanent-intermittent employees) unless you cancel or change your cash option during open enrollment. If you're already enrolled in a cash option and don't need to cancel or make changes, you don't need to take any action during open enrollment.

Mid-Year Enrollments

If you're newly eligible for FlexElect, you may enroll within 60 days of becoming eligible. See page 3 for details.

For More Information

If you need more information, check with your Personnel Office or visit the Department of Personnel Administration's Web site at www.dpa.ca.gov (click on Benefits, then follow the prompts for FlexElect). The DPA Web site also includes links to IRS publications that contain more details about the kinds of expenses you can pay for with a reimbursement account.

If you're already enrolled in a FlexElect account and have questions about your account, call 1-800-342-8017 to speak with a customer service representative from Fringe Benefits Management Company (FBMC), the FlexElect program's recordkeeper. FBMC processes claims and provides customer service for the FlexElect reimbursement accounts. You also can e-mail FBMC at webcustomerservice@fbmc-benefits.com, visit its Web site at www.fbmc-benefits.com, or access its 24-hour automated phone system at 1-800-865-3262.

What's a Reimbursement Account?

A reimbursement account allows you to set aside some of your income to pay certain kinds of expenses. FlexElect offers two kinds of reimbursement accounts: a medical account and a dependent care account.

A medical account is for paying out-of-pocket health-related expenses for you and your dependents. A dependent care account is for paying someone to take care of your dependents so you can go to work. These accounts are covered in more detail in separate sections of this handbook.

When you enroll in a reimbursement account, you designate an amount to be deducted each month from your wages. That money is automatically deposited in your FlexElect account for one plan year. After you receive health-related or dependent care services during that year, you submit a claim for reimbursement from your FlexElect account. Your reimbursement check is mailed to you.

Tax advantage: Money deducted from your paycheck for a reimbursement account is not taxable, nor are the reimbursement payments. That lowers the amount of taxes you owe.

Deadline to claim funds: To ensure you get back all the funds in your reimbursement account, you must submit claims for services provided in 2005 by June 30, 2006.

Use it or lose it: Any funds left in your account after the June 30, 2006, deadline are forfeited.

Examples of the Tax Benefits

The examples below show the monthly tax savings available by enrolling in a medical or dependent care reimbursement account. These are only examples. Actual tax savings vary from one individual to another, depending on deduction amount, salary, marital status, exemptions, and participation in other tax savings programs such as Savings Plus. (Calculations are based on the 2004 Tax Table.)

While everyone benefits more by participating in the State's medical reimbursement account, some people are better off claiming their dependent care expenses on their tax return. This issue is explained further in the dependent care account section. Before you make a final decision to enroll in a reimbursement account, it's a good idea to check with a tax advisor if you're unsure which option offers you the best tax advantage.

What's a Cash Option?

FlexElect offers an "option" for State employees who want to receive cash in lieu of their State-sponsored health and/or dental benefits. To be eligible for a cash option, you must have health and/or dental coverage through another source such as a spouse or domestic partner:

Who May Enroll in FlexElect?

Reimbursement Accounts - Eligibility

You're eligible to enroll in a FlexElect reimbursement account if you have a permanent position that is half-time or more. If you have a temporary position, you're eligible if you have a mandatory right of return to a permanent position that is half-time or more.

If you're a permanent-intermittent employee, you're not eligible to enroll in a reimbursement account.

Cash Options - Eligibility

The same eligibility criteria described above apply to enrollment in a cash option, with the following differences:

- ✓ If you're a permanent-intermittent employee, you may enroll in the FlexElect cash option.
- ✓ If you're in Bargaining Unit 6, you may not enroll in the cash option for dental benefits. This restriction is set by the union's Benefit Trust. However, you may enroll in the cash option for health benefits.
- ✓ If you're covered by Consolidated Benefits (CoBen) your cash option is available through CoBen, not FlexElect. (CoBen covers excluded employees and bargaining units 2, 7, 8, 16, 17, 18, and 19.) Contact your personnel office for information and forms to enroll in a CoBen cash option.

When May I Enroll?

Your first opportunity to enroll in a reimbursement account and/or cash option is within 60 days after becoming "newly eligible" for these benefits. However, for many employees the typical time to enroll is during the annual Fall open enrollment period.

Open Enrollment Period (September 15 – October 15, 2004)

During this period, you can enroll in a reimbursement account and/or cash option by submitting an enrollment form to your personnel office by the closing day of open enrollment (October 15, 2004). After you turn in your form(s), you have until December 31, 2004, to cancel your enrollment or make changes. There are enrollment forms in the back of this handbook.

Reimbursement Account: If you enroll in a reimbursement account during the 2004 open enrollment period, your enrollment is effective for the 2005 "plan year" (January 1-December 31, 2005). You must re-enroll each year during open enrollment if you want to participate in a reimbursement account the following year.

Cash Option: If you're already enrolled in a cash option, you don't need to take any action during open enrollment unless you want to cancel or change your cash option. If you enroll (or cancel/change your enrollment) during the 2004 open enrollment period, your cash option (or cancellation/change) becomes effective January 1, 2005. Once enrolled, your cash option automatically continues each year.

Exception to automatic re-enrollment in cash option: Permanent-intermittent employees are not automatically re-enrolled in a cash option. If you're a permanent-intermittent employee enrolled in a cash option, and you want to continue your cash option next year, you must submit a new enrollment form (STD. 701C) during open enrollment. You also may need to complete the Standard Health Benefits (HBD-12) and/or Dental Enrollment (STD. 692) forms (see page 17). Check with your Personnel Office for details.

Newly Eligible

Besides the annual open enrollment period, you also have the opportunity to enroll in a FlexElect reimbursement account and/or cash option within 60 days after becoming "newly eligible." You're newly eligible if:

- ✓ you're a new State employee hired after the open enrollment period;

- ✓ you were on an approved leave of absence during the entire open enrollment period;
- ✓ you experience a change in status described on pages 14-16 that permits you to enroll as newly eligible. If your change in status results in a concurrent approved leave of absence (e.g., birth of child followed by a maternity leave), you may enroll by the deadlines specified below after you return to work; or
- ✓ your time base/employee designation changes from one that was ineligible to one that is eligible, or you change from a permanent-intermittent position to a permanent position with a time base of half-time or more.

(If you're a permanent-intermittent employee, refer to page 13, "Cash Option for Permanent-Intermittent Employees," for more details.)

Deadline for newly eligible employees to enroll:

If you're newly eligible and want to enroll in a FlexElect benefit, you must submit enrollment forms to your personnel office within 60 days after becoming newly eligible. Correctly completed forms received at the State Controller's Office by the 10th of the month are effective the 1st of the following month (except when the 10th is on a weekend or holiday, in which case the cut-off date will be on the next regular workday).

If you're newly eligible, your last possible effective date of participation in the 2005 plan year is December 1, 2005. For your enrollment to be effective December 1, 2005, the State Controller's Office must receive your enrollment form by November 10, 2005. Forms received after that date will be processed for the 2006 plan year.

If you enroll in a reimbursement account as a newly eligible employee, you may only claim expenses incurred from the effective date of your participation through December 31.

Can I Change My Enrollment?

You can't change or cancel your enrollment during the plan year unless there is a change in your status, called a "permitting event." See pages 14-16 for a complete list of "permitting events."

Administrative Fee

If you enroll in a FlexElect reimbursement account and/or cash option, a $1 fee is deducted from your after-tax salary each month. This fee covers administrative costs of the FlexElect program.

Medical Reimbursement Account

Even with the best of health care plans, there are certain expenses the plans don't cover. With a FlexElect Medical Reimbursement Account, you can set aside money from your paycheck to pay for those expenses. The money you set aside is exempt from taxation, so you end up owing less taxes on your income.

For most employees with out-of-pocket medical expenses (i.e., the expenses have not been reimbursed and reimbursement will not be sought from any other source), a reimbursement account offers a better tax break than claiming a deduction for those expenses on your tax return. That's because federal tax law currently allows you to deduct health care premiums and expenses on your income tax form only if your medical expenses for the year exceed 7.5 percent of your adjusted gross income. You would need to have very high out-of-pocket medical expenses and a low taxable income to reach that 7.5 percent level.

This part of the handbook explains the kind of expenses you can pay for with a medical reimbursement account and other important rules of the program. Please read it carefully. Although a reimbursement account is a great way to lower your taxes and save money for certain expenses, you will forfeit any funds left in your account if you don't claim them by the deadline. You can avoid this possibility by following these simple steps:

- ✓ Be sure expenses qualify. Once funds have been deducted from your paycheck and credited to your FlexElect account, you can only claim them if you or an eligible dependent incurs an expense that's reimbursable under the FlexElect program. An expense is incurred on the date the service is provided, not when it is billed or paid.
- ✓ Estimate expenses conservatively. It's better to underestimate costs than overestimate. If you overestimate how much you expect to spend on eligible medical expenses, you'll end up with more money in your account than you can claim for reimbursement. Leftover funds cannot be carried over to the following year.
- ✓ Meet the deadline for claims. The deadline to submit claims for expenses incurred in 2005 is June 30, 2006.

Medical Expenses That Are Reimbursable

You may claim reimbursement for out-of-pocket medical services and/or supplies provided to you, your spouse, and your dependents (see "Eligible Dependents" below) if the services/supplies are related to:

- ✓ the diagnosis, cure, prevention, or treatment of a disease affecting any part or function of the body, or
- ✓ transportation primarily for and essential to this medical care.

If you participated in a medical account in the past, you should still review the rules regarding reimbursable expenses. IRS rules change periodically causing some expenses that once were reimbursable to now be ineligible, and expenses that were not eligible to become eligible.

The chart to the right lists examples of reimbursable expenses. IRS Publication 502 provides information regarding items you can and cannot claim as eligible expenses. Contact FBMC at 1-800-342-8017 or a tax advisor if you have questions about reimbursable expenses.

If you enroll for the 2005 plan year, you can only claim reimbursement for medical services and/or supplies that are provided from the effective date of your enrollment through December 31, 2005, regardless of when you were billed for or paid the expense.

- ✓ If you enroll during the 2004 open enrollment period, your effective date of enrollment is January 1, 2005.
- ✓ If you enroll as a newly eligible employee, see "Deadline for newly eligible employees to enroll," page 3, for effective dates of mid-year enrollments.

Eligible Dependents

A person is considered your dependent if:

- ✓ you provide over half of his or her support; and
- ✓ he or she is your child, grandchild, stepchild, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, parent, grandparent, step-parent, niece, nephew, aunt, uncle, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.

A person who is unrelated to you but lives with you and is a member of your household may be considered your dependent if you provide over half of his or her support and the person qualifies as a dependent under Internal Revenue Code Section 152.

Current federal tax law does not include domestic partners in the definition of dependent, which means you can't claim reimbursement for a domestic partner's medical expenses unless he or she otherwise qualifies as a dependent under Internal Revenue Code Section 152.

There are also special rules defining dependents in cases of multiple support arrangements where no single person provides more than half the dependent's support, children of divorced parents, and persons living outside the United States. Consult a tax advisor for more information.

For an individual other than your spouse and/or dependent children, you may be required to certify in writing that he or she is your dependent according to criteria described above.

Reminders Regarding Certain Expenses

Meals and lodging: The cost of meals and lodging is reimbursable if the expense is incurred while an eligible individual is away from home and receiving health care treatment. Meals are reimbursable only if the expense is incurred in a medical facility. Consult IRS Publication 502 for specific requirements.

Orthodontia: Initial requests for reimbursement of orthodontic treatment must include a contract or statement from the orthodontist. This documentation must reflect the beginning date of the treatment plan, total cost of treatment, and estimated length of treatment. Reimbursement of the full or initial payment amount may only occur during the plan year in which the braces are first installed. (Orthodontic treatment primarily cosmetic in nature is not reimbursable.)

Prescription drugs: Requests for reimbursement for prescriptions must include the date the prescription was filled, the prescription number, and the name of the medication. Cash register receipts are insufficient documentation unless the reimbursement claim form includes the required information (date filled, etc.).

Over-the-Counter (OTC) medicines and drugs: OTC medicines and drugs purchased to treat an existing or imminent medical condition qualify as a covered medical expense. This means items such as allergy medications, smoking cessation medications, aspirin, cold medications, vitamins and nutritional supplements, etc. can be claimed if they are purchased to treat an existing or imminent medical condition. None of these items can be claimed if they are purchased for general health purposes or for possible future use. For example, if you purchase a large supply of aspirin to have available in case you need it sometime in the future, it will not qualify.

Transportation: You may claim up to $0.14 per mile for transportation required for health care. Indicate the number of round trip miles on your reimbursement claim form and your receipt for prescription drugs, doctor's visit, etc. You can also claim parking and/or toll expenses if you provide a receipt.

Non-Reimbursable Medical Expenses

- ✓ Insurance plan premiums are not reimbursable (even though mentioned in IRS Publication 502). For example, any out-of-pocket premiums for health insurance, dental insurance, long-term care insurance, and life insurance are not reimbursable.
- ✓ Expenses that only benefit general health are not reimbursable. For example, health club expenses for general good health purposes are not reimbursable.
- ✓ Expenses that are solely for cosmetic reasons are not reimbursable. For example, dental procedures to whiten or cap teeth and orthodontic procedures primarily cosmetic in nature are not reimbursable.
- ✓ Face-lifts, hair transplants, prescription drugs for hair growth, electrolysis (hair removal), and massage therapy generally are not reimbursable. However, surgery or procedures to alleviate, treat, mitigate, or prevent a medical condition are eligible for reimbursement. Therefore, if you claim reimbursement for something that also could be considered cosmetic, you must submit a statement from your doctor indicating the medical condition and that your treatment is necessary to treat that condition.

Annual Limits on Medical Account Deductions

If you enroll in a medical reimbursement account, your contributions to it must be:

- ✓ at least $10 per month, and
- ✓ no more than $5,000 per year.

In other words, over a 12-month period you may contribute a minimum of $10 per month up to a maximum of $416.66 per month. If you enroll mid-year, you may contribute more than $416.66 per month as long as you don't exceed the $5,000 annual maximum.

Once the 2005 plan year starts (January 1, 2005), you cannot change your monthly deduction amount except in limited circumstances. These circumstances, called "permitting events," are listed on pages 14-16.

Estimating Your Medical Deduction Amount

To determine a monthly deduction amount that's appropriate for you, it helps to review out-of-pocket medical expenses that you, your spouse, and eligible dependents incurred over the past year on a routine basis and expect to continue incurring in 2005. (Be sure you only include medical expenses covered by FlexElect.) Add those costs to any new covered expenses you, your spouse, and eligible dependents expect to incur in 2005.

This will give you a rough estimate of your total covered medical expenses for 2005. To calculate an appropriate monthly deduction, divide that total by the number of months you'll be enrolled. (If you enroll during open enrollment, you would divide by 12. If you enroll mid-year as a newly eligible employee, count the number of months from your effective date of enrollment through December 31.) Keep in mind the amount you calculate must fall within the annual limits described on the previous page.

If Your Status Changes

Once you enroll in a reimbursement account, you can't cancel or change your enrollment during the plan year unless you experience a change in status, called a "permitting event." See pages 14-16 for a list of permitting events.

Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA)

If you retire, leave State service, take an unpaid leave of absence, or experience a reduction in your work hours to an ineligible time base (i.e., less than half time), you can still contribute to your medical reimbursement account through the end of the plan year. To do so, you must enroll in COBRA within 60 days after the date of one of these events (retirement, etc.). There are no tax savings on contributions you make under COBRA. Contact your personnel office for details.

Medical expenses incurred after you leave active pay status are reimbursable only if you continue contributing to your medical account under COBRA. If you choose not to continue your contributions, you may only claim reimbursement for eligible expenses incurred before you left active pay status.

Changes for 2005

Since publication of the 2004 FlexElect handbook, the following changes affecting medical reimbursement accounts were adopted:

- ✓ The reimbursable amount for transportation costs for the purpose of health care has been increased. You may now claim up to $0.14 per mile, up from the $0.13 per mile allowed previously. At the time this handbook was being printed we had no projected amount for 2005. If there is an increase in the amount for the 2005 plan year we will notify all participants prior to the start of the 2005 plan year.
- ✓ Over-the-counter (OTC) medicines and drugs now qualify for the flex account if used to treat an existing or imminent medical condition. The receipt or documentation from the store must include the name of the drug printed (by the store) on the receipt. You must indicate the existing or imminent medical condition for which the item will be used on the receipt, on the claim form, or on a separate enclosed statement each time these items are claimed (items such as vitamins and nutrition supplements require a physician's statement). Purchases for general good health will not be accepted.

- ✓ If you enroll in a health club program as prescribed by a physician for a medical condition it could qualify for the Medical Reimbursement Account. However, if you would have or already had joined the health club without this medical condition, the expense does not qualify. To claim this item you must have a letter from the physician stating the diagnosis and that it is necessary for treatment of that medical condition for you to attend a health club. You also must send a letter stating that you would not have joined if it were not for this medical condition. The prescription is valid for 12 months from issue date to support claims for this expense.

IRS Publication 502 contains detailed information on expenses you can claim through a medical reimbursement account. The DPA Web site provides a link to this publication (www.dpa.ca.gov, under Benefits, then click on FlexElect Program).

Dependent Care Reimbursement Account

A dependent care account is similar to a medical account except it's for paying daycare expenses. The money you contribute to a dependent care account is not taxable, which means you'll pay less taxes than you would if this money is counted as taxable income.

This section explains the kind of expenses that are reimbursable with a dependent care account and other important rules of the program. Please read it carefully. Although a reimbursement account is a great way to lower your taxes and save money for certain expenses, you will forfeit any funds left in your account if you don't claim them by the deadline. You can avoid this possibility by following these simple steps:

- ✓ Be sure expenses qualify. Once funds have been deducted from your paycheck and credited to your FlexElect account, you can only claim them if you incur an eligible dependent care expense. An expense is incurred on the date the service is provided, not when billed or paid.
- ✓ Estimate expenses conservatively. It's better to underestimate costs than overestimate. If you overestimate how much you expect to spend on eligible dependent care expenses, you'll end up with more money in your account than you can claim reimbursement for. Leftover funds cannot be carried over to the following year.
- ✓ Meet the deadline for claims. The deadline to submit claims for expenses incurred in 2005 is June 30, 2006.

Dependent Care Expenses That Are Reimbursable

Expenses for child care, elder care, and care for a disabled dependent are reimbursable if the care is necessary for you to work. If you're married, your spouse must also work, unless he or she is a full-time student or physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself or herself.

Child Care

For child care expenses to qualify, your child must be a dependent under the age of 13 when the child care is provided. (There is no age limit if your child is disabled.) You must be able to claim an exemption for this child on your federal tax return. However, if you are divorced or separated, your expenses may qualify if you are the custodial parent (have more than 50% custody) even if you can't claim the child's exemption (see IRS Publication 503 for details).

Elder Care and Disabled Dependent Care

If the care is for a parent or other dependent who is disabled, that person must live in your home at least 8 hours a day, be unable to care for himself or herself, and be someone you can claim an exemption for on your federal tax return (even if you don't claim the exemption because the person's income exceeds the allowable limit).

A person who's unrelated to you but lives with you and is a member of your household may be considered your dependent if you provide over half of his or her support and the person qualifies as a dependent under Internal Revenue Code Section 152. Current federal tax law does not include domestic partners in the definition of dependent. Therefore, you can't claim reimbursement for care of a domestic partner unless he or she otherwise qualifies as a dependent under Section 152.

Dependent care services may be provided in your home or someplace else, including family day care homes and day care centers that comply with all applicable state and local laws. Day camp expenses qualify as eligible expenses, but overnight camp expenses do not qualify.

To be reimbursable, the care must be provided sometime from the effective date of your enrollment through December 31, 2005. This is different than if you claim a tax credit on your 2005 federal tax return, which bases eligibility on the year when you paid for the dependent care rather than when the care was provided.

If you need help determining whether your expenses qualify for reimbursement, check IRS Publication 503 and/or consult a tax advisor. The DPA Web site provides a link to this publication (www.dpa.ca.gov, under Benefits, then click on FlexElect Program).

Related Expenses That Are Reimbursable

- ✓ Services required for the maintenance of your household such as cleaning and cooking are eligible for reimbursement if the primary function of the provider of this service is to care for your dependent.

- ✓ If your child care provider includes other services that are incidental to and can't be separated from the child care expense, the full amount is reimbursable. For example, if your child is enrolled in a nursery school, and the school provides lunch and education along with providing child care, the full amount you pay the school is reimbursable (within the annual limits of a FlexElect dependent care account).

Non-Reimbursable Dependent Care Expenses

- ✓ Dependent care services provided by one of your kids who is under the age of 19 at the close of 2005 are not eligible for reimbursement. For example, if you pay your 18-year-old to take care of your 9-year-old or a parent, the expense is not reimbursable.
- ✓ Food and clothing costs are not reimbursable.
- ✓ Transportation for your dependent between your home and the place where care is provided is not reimbursable.
- ✓ Medical care is not covered by a dependent care account. Refer to the section on medical reimbursement accounts for coverage of such expenses.
- ✓ School registration fees and expenses for overnight camp and/or camps primarily for educational purposes (e.g. science camp) are not reimbursable.
- ✓ Education expenses for a child in the first grade or higher level are not reimbursable.
- ✓ Given that tuition for a child in kindergarten or higher grade is not reimbursable, it's important that receipts submitted from your dependent care provider distinguish daycare costs from tuition costs. Kindergarten tuition cost is not reimbursable unless it is incidental to and can't be separated from the cost of care.

Annual Limits on Dependent Care Deductions

If you enroll in a dependent care reimbursement account, your contributions to it must be:

- ✓ at least $20 per month, and
- ✓ no more than $5,000 per year per household ($2,500 for a married individual filing a separate tax return).

In other words, over a 12-month period you may contribute a minimum of $20 per month up to a maximum of $416.66 per month (or $208.33 if you're married and filing a separate tax return). If you enroll mid-year, you may contribute more than $416.66 per month (up to the applicable annual household limit).

If you're eligible for an employer contribution to your dependent care account, the employer contribution is included in the annual limit. (See the box on the next page for information on the employer contribution.)

If you earn more than $90,000 in 2004, you're considered a "highly compensated employee" under IRS rules and may be subject to a lower maximum contribution than listed above. The FlexElect program can't determine your maximum contribution until all enrollment documents have been processed (typically February or March). We will notify you if we determine that you must reduce your contribution amount.

Under no circumstances may your annual contribution exceed the applicable maximum annual contribution, your annual earned income, or your spouse's annual earned income, whichever is less.

If your spouse is a full-time student, or a dependent who is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself or herself, for the purpose of determining your annual contribution your spouse will be considered to have earned income as follows (these amounts have been raised since last year):

- ✓ not less than $250 per month, if you only have one dependent for the plan year; or
- ✓ not less than $500 per month, if you have two or more dependents for the plan year.

Estimating Your Dependent Care Deduction Amount

To determine a monthly deduction amount that's appropriate for you, start by reviewing your dependent care expenses over the past year. Consider factors that may cause the cost to fluctuate such as your child returning to or entering school, reaching age 13, vacations, school breaks, care provider's vacation, etc.

To estimate a monthly contribution, divide your total estimated costs for the year by 12 (if you're enrolling during open enrollment). If you're enrolling mid-year as "newly eligible," divide the total by the number of months you will be enrolled (beginning with the effective date of your enrollment through December 31).

Tax Issues

Tax credit vs. reimbursement account: If you have dependent care expenses, you may already be familiar with the dependent care tax credit you can claim on your federal tax return. Depending on your income level, amount of dependent care expenses, and other factors, you may find that a reimbursement account provides a lesser tax advantage than claiming the tax credit on your federal tax return. Before enrolling in a reimbursement account, consult a tax advisor and/or review IRS Publication 503 if you're not certain which method works best for you. (The DPA Web site provides a link to IRS Publication 503.)

Eligibility for Employer Contribution

Under a special project in place for the 2003-2005 plan year(s), some State employees qualify for an employer contribution to their dependent care reimbursement account. For the 2005 plan year, this employer contribution may be up to $1,000/year. To be eligible, your salary cannot exceed $48,000 per year. Approved applicants are required to enroll in a FlexElect dependent care reimbursement account during the Fall open enrollment period.

The employer contribution is counted as part of the annual contribution limit of $5,000 per household ($2,500 if married filing separately). That means an employee who receives the maximum employer contribution of $1,000 may contribute no more than $4,000 per year ($2,000 if married and filing separately).

For more information, check with your department's Work and Family Representative or Personnel Office, or visit DPA's web site at www.dpa.ca.gov (under Work and Family).

Filing IRS Form 2441: If you're enrolled in a FlexElect dependent care account for 2005, you will need to complete Part 3 of IRS Form 2441 ("Child and Dependent Care Expenses") and attach this form to your 2005 federal tax return. (If you use Form 1040A, attach Schedule 2 instead.)

If Your Status Changes

Once you enroll in a reimbursement account, you can't cancel or change your enrollment during the plan year unless you experience a change in status, called a "permitting event." See pages 14-16 for a list of permitting events.

If you retire, your payroll deductions for a dependent care account will stop automatically. Unlike a medical account, you may not continue contributions to your dependent care account under COBRA. However, you can claim reimbursement for eligible dependent care expenses that occur after you retire (if the care was provided while you are working) up to the amount deposited in your account for that plan year.

How to Claim Reimbursement

This section describes how to claim reimbursement from your account. Remember, the medical service or supply and/or dependent care must be provided before you can submit the claim. You also need to provide verification of the expense, described below.

1. Fill out Reimbursement Claim Form. (You'll receive a supply of claim forms in the mail before the plan year starts.)
2. Attach documentation.

Medical accounts: If claiming reimbursement from a medical account, attach doctor's statement, itemized bill, evidence of benefits statement, etc. A cancelled check is not acceptable documentation.

Dependent care accounts: If claiming reimbursement from a dependent care account, attach a statement signed by your provider or have your provider sign in the space provided on the claim form. If you attach a statement, it must show the provider's name, beginning and ending dates of the dependent care service that was provided, the amount, and the provider's tax I.D. or Social Security Number. (If your provider signs the statement on the form, that information is requested on the form.)

You may submit claims as often as you like. If you pay your provider in advance, such as paying a daycare provider on the first of the month for that month's daycare, you may prefer to submit your claims every week or two rather than waiting until the end of the month. (Make extra copies of your original statement if you plan to submit claims more frequently.)

3. Mail your completed form and required documentation to Fringe Benefits Management Company (FBMC), the recordkeeper for FlexElect. The address is:

Fringe Benefits Management Company
P.O. Box 1800
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1800

You may also Fax your claim form and supporting documentation to FBMC at (850) 425-4608.

4. Once your claim form is processed, a tax-free reimbursement check is mailed to your home.

The address the State Controller's Office has on file for you is the address where your check is mailed. For that reason, it's important that you verify with your personnel office that the State Controller's Office has your correct address on file. If the address is incorrect, or you move while enrolled in FlexElect, you need to complete an Employee Action Request (STD. 686) so the State Controller's Office can update its records. This form is available from your personnel office.

For Additional Forms and Information

Additional claim forms (DPA Form 351) are available from FBMC's Web site at www.fbmc-benefits.com. If you have questions about how to fill out the form, what documentation to attach, or the status of a claim you already have submitted, call FBMC at 1-800-342-8017 or e-mail FBMC at webcustomerservice@fbmc-benefits.com. FBMC also has a 24-hour InfoLine at 1-800-865-3262. You may also use your FBMC assigned PIN number to access personal account information on the Web site listed above.

Payment Dates

There are three payment cycles for processing valid reimbursement claims:

- ✓ If FBMC receives your claim by the 1st of the month, your reimbursement check will be issued between the 14th and 16th of that month.
- ✓ If FBMC receives your claim by the 10th of the month, your reimbursement check will be issued between the 24th and 26th of that month.
- ✓ If FBMC receives your claim by the 20th of the month, your reimbursement check will be issued between the 3rd and 5th of the next month.

The minimum reimbursement amount that will be paid from your account is $2. If you submit a claim for less than $2, the payment will be held until your total reimbursement claims equal $2 or more.

Cash Options

If you have medical and/or dental insurance through a spouse, domestic partner, or another source, you have the option to receive cash in lieu of your State-sponsored health and/or dental benefits.

Depending on which cash option you enroll in, you'll receive:

- ✓ $128/month in lieu of health benefits;
- ✓ $12/month in lieu of dental benefits; or
- ✓ $140/month in lieu of medical and dental benefits.

This money is treated as taxable income and is reported on your W-2 statement for the tax year when you receive payment. Cash option payments are not considered compensation for retirement purposes.

Before Enrolling in a Cash Option

The cash option is designed to expand your benefit options, not limit or decrease important medical and/or dental coverage for you and your family. Accordingly, it's important to make sure your health and dental needs are met before you enroll in a cash option. Here are some factors to consider when making your enrollment decision.

- ✓ Three-Year Commitment—If you enroll in the cash option in lieu of dental benefits, you may not re-enroll in a State-sponsored dental plan for three “plan years.” (Plan years run from January 1 through December 31.) After completing the three-year commitment, you may enroll in a dental plan during the open enrollment period. The only exception is if you lose your other dental coverage. In this instance, you would be allowed to re-enroll in a State-sponsored dental plan within 60 days.
- ✓ If you're not enrolled in a State-sponsored health and/or dental plan at the time of your death, your surviving spouse and dependents can't enroll in a medical or dental plan unless the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS) determines they're eligible for survivor benefits.
- ✓ If you're a State employee eligible for State-sponsored health/dental benefits, you can't enroll in a cash option by being listed as a dependent on your parent's State-sponsored health and/or dental plan.

How to Change or Cancel Your Cash Option

If you currently are enrolled in a cash option and want to discontinue it for 2005, you must complete a Cash Option Enrollment Authorization (STD. 701C) and submit it to your personnel office during open enrollment (September 15 – October 15, 2004).

If you currently are enrolled in a cash option and want to make other changes such as adding eligible dependents and/or another cash option, you must complete an enrollment document and submit it to your personnel office during open enrollment (September 15 – October 15, 2004).

Cash Option for Unit 6 Employees

If you're in Bargaining Unit 6, you may not enroll in the cash option for dental benefits. This restriction is set by the union's Benefit Trust. However, you may enroll in the cash option for health benefits.

Cash Option for CoBen Employees

If you're covered by Consolidated Benefits (CoBen), your cash option is available through CoBen, not FlexElect. CoBen covers excluded employees and bargaining units 2, 7, 8, 16, 17, 18, and 19. Contact your personnel office for information and forms to enroll in a CoBen cash option.

Cash Option for Permanent-Intermittent Employees

If you're a permanent-intermittent employee and want to receive cash in lieu of your health and/or dental benefits, you must enroll each plan year you want to participate. You must complete the enrollment form (STD. 701C) during open enrollment, or as "newly eligible" after open enrollment but prior to January 1.

In order to receive the cash payment, you also must meet all the following criteria:

- ✓ be eligible to enroll in health and/or dental insurance as of January 1, 2005 (i.e., you qualified in the July 1–December 31, 2004 control period);
- ✓ have a permanent-intermittent appointment from January 1, 2005, through June 30, 2005; and
- ✓ be paid for at least 480 hours worked from January through June 2005.

If you're appointed to a permanent position with a time base of half-time or more, you lose eligibility for the PI cash payment. If you want to enroll as a newly eligible permanent employee, you must complete a new STD. 701C within 60 days after your appointment. Additionally, this appointment makes you newly eligible for a reimbursement account; if you want to enroll in a Medical and/or Dependent Care Reimbursement Account, you must complete a STD. 701R within 60 days after the date of your appointment.

Lump sum payment: If you enroll in a cash option for health and/or dental benefits as a permanent-intermittent employee, you will receive your payment in a lump sum. The amount is for the period of January through June; you are not eligible for the cash option for the July through December period. After June 30, 2005, once your Personnel Office certifies your eligibility based on the criteria listed above, you will receive your cash option payment as follows:

- ✓ $768 in lieu of health benefits;
- ✓ $72 in lieu of dental benefits; or
- ✓ $840 in lieu of health and dental benefits.

These payments are made within 60 days after the State Controller's Office receives the certification from your personnel office. The $1 monthly administrative fee ($12 total for the plan year) is deducted from your lump sum payment.

If Your Status Changes

Once you enroll in a cash option, you can't cancel or change your enrollment during the plan year (January 1 through December 31) unless you experience a change in status, called a "permitting event." See pages 14-16 for a complete list of status changes that permit you to cancel or change your enrollment.

If you're enrolled in a cash option when you retire, your cash option will stop automatically. You need to take the following actions to protect your benefits:

If enrolled in cash option for health benefits: You have 30 days prior to or 60 days following the date of your retirement to enroll in California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS) health plan. If you don't enroll within this time period, you must wait until the next health open enrollment. Your enrollment at that point would be handled through CalPERS.

If enrolled in cash option for dental benefits: You have 30 days prior to or 60 days following the date of your retirement to enroll in a dental plan. If you don't enroll within this time period, you must wait until the next dental open enrollment. If you enroll prior to retirement, your dental enrollment will be processed through your personnel office. If you enroll following retirement, your enrollment is handled through CalPERS.

Changes in Status (“Permitting Events”)

If you experience a change in status that's listed on the following chart, you're permitted to take the action that's listed next to that change. You have 60 days following the date of your status change to take the corresponding action.

Your completed form(s) must be received at the State Controller's Office by the 10th of the month to be effective on the first of the following month.

In addition to the permitting events listed on the chart below, here are some other payroll status changes and how they affect your FlexElect enrollment:

Non-Industrial Disability Insurance (NDI): If you go on NDI while enrolled in a reimbursement account and/or cash option, your monthly deductions and/or cash option payment remain in effect and will be reflected on your NDI check.

Industrial Disability Leave (IDL): If you go on IDL while enrolled in a FlexElect cash option, your enrollment remains in effect. You will receive a separate check for your cash option, issued about a week after your IDL check.

If you're enrolled in either reimbursement account, your account deductions will stop for as long as you're on IDL. If you return to regular pay within the FlexElect plan year, your deductions will resume. However, if you go on IDL with Supplementation (IDL/S), your reimbursement account deduction will continue, provided the amount of your supplementation income is large enough to cover the full amount of your account deductions.

Unpaid Leave of Absence: If you are on an unpaid leave of absence while enrolled in a reimbursement account and/or cash option, your enrollment will stop while you are on leave. If you return to pay status in the same FlexElect plan year, your enrollment will resume. Keep in mind that if you are enrolled in the medical reimbursement account and wish to continue to submit claims for services provided during your unpaid leave of absence, you may elect to continue to make contributions through COBRA. Contact your personnel office for details.
